

Candidate	Clueless	Pro-charter (nearly unregulated)	Pro-Charter, Strong Accountability (regulated)	Prioritize Truly Public Schools
Alejandra Campoverdi (D)				“proliferation of charters cannot come at expense of funding for public schools”
Arturo Carmona (D)				“political energy & resources spent on charter movement ...better spent improving public school system”
Kenneth Mejia (D)				“separate is unequal” ... “more resources to our public schools,” especially “to reduce class size”

Candidate	Clueless	Pro-charter (nearly unregulated)	Pro-Charter, Strong Accountability (regulated)	Prioritize Truly Public Schools
Vanessa Aramayo (D)			Supports “public non-profit charter schools...run transparently, governed by stakeholders, accountable for expenditures & student performance”
Maria Cabildo (D)			strong local and state accountability
Jimmy Gomez (D)			“charters must be...transparent and accountable for results...no two-tiered system”
Raymond Meza (D)			“strongly opposed...on vouchers” ... “charters with same accountability and regulations” as public schools
Sandra Mendoza (D)			“Local districts” should “vet public charter operators”

Candidate	Clueless	Pro-Charter (nearly unregulated)	Pro-Charter, Strong Accountability (regulated)	Prioritize Truly Public Schools
Robert Lee Ahn (D)		States should evaluate/provide oversight, not feds
Wendy Carrillo (D)		Accountability based on “proficiency & growth”
Yolie Flores (D)*		Favors “innovation”; ie, “school choice” (“options”)
Melissa “Sharkie” Garza (D)		“charter schools give choice”...federal government’s job sees money is “properly allocated”
Sara Hernandez (D)		“support local control funding and localizing oversight to states and school districts, along with common core educational standards”...also “accountability for...public charter schools”
Tracy Van Houten (D)		Reinvest in “teachers, students and infrastructure,” let “local leaders should be accountable”;

		state gives money
Angela McArdle		Local & state solutions will save money; federal approaches are failures
Steven Mac (D)		Favors CCSS, NGSS; school districts should authorize
Tenaya Wallace (D)		"Riordan...too dominant"...w/wholesale movement toward charters is a mistake"

Candidate	Clueless	Pro-charter (nearly unregulated)	Pro-Charter, Strong Accountability (regulated)	Prioritize Truly Public Schools
------------------	-----------------	---	---	--

Adrienne Nicole Edwards (D)	"unlimited resources" to public schools, supports charters, thinks "Betsy DeVos should be making resources to all schools, public and charter"
Ricardo de la Fuente (D)	"support charters"... "but not vouchers"
Armando Sotomayor (D)	"should be up to states" & "no federal interventio n unless necessity dictates”

Richard Joseph Sullivan (D)	Favors charters; would create “tax credits” for public-private partnerships to establish new schools”
Mark Edward Padilla (NPP)	Supports “parents’ right to choose,” charters and vouchers
William “Rodriguez” Morrison (GOP)	“I would have to take a closer look at this issue.”	